National Mall – 4th Street

Gerry Green, District Superintendent of the Greater Washington District of BWC invites us to join in the United to Love Rally, an ecumenical peace and justice rally on August 12th. The United to Love Rally will stand as an alternative to the hatred, but it will also be much more as people of faith claim and share God's love, peace and justice. For more information and registration please visit www.unitedtolove.org. Registrations with waivers and volunteer sign-ups may be accessed on the site.

Yarn for Kenya

The village sho shos of Nyumbani Village are in need of yarn. Lloydie Zaiser is requesting balls or skeins of yarn bigger than one's fist. Please drop off yarn in the box outside the church office by September 9th.

New Pictorial Directory

Coming Soon

With a new pastor and many new faces in the congregation it seems like a great time to update our directory. We have arranged with Lifetouch to take photos of the congregational families on 9/13, 9/14, 9/15 and 9/25-9/26. At least one day will be at Asbury. Watch for Sign ups soon!

Volunteer Opportunity

On August 28, Faith's fellowship hall and garden will once again be the site for the Montgomery County Coalition for the Homeless (MCCH) Back to School Fair. Nearly 300 children served by MCCH (who are no longer homeless thanks to their permanent housing programs) will pick up backpacks, school supplies and books. A few volunteers are still needed to help run snacks, crafts and games stations.

If you would like to volunteer or donate school supplies and/or snacks and drinks, sign up here: <https://mcch.net/back-to-school-fair/>.

Where Did You See God This Summer?

Send us your photos of where you saw God this summer. It could be anything beautiful and inspiring, your summer travels, camp, acts of service, friends and family, or whatever prayerfully comes to mind as you reflect on your time with God this summer. Help us create a beautiful mosaic of summer memories for which we are thankful. On Sunday, August 26th, we will share our photos in a Summer Slideshow that will run continuously during our fellowship times between and after the services in the Fellowship Hall.

The deadline to submit your photos is August 19. You can get these photos to us:

- Send your digital photos to gdawson@faithworkshere.com.
- Drop off your prints in the Office mailbox downstairs, bring them to the church office (Mon-Fri, 9am-3pm), or mail them to us. We'll return your prints on August 26th.
